

Wanting to use Facebook to promote the Respiratory Quality Improvement Programme for West Yorkshire and Harrogate Health and Care Partnership to your colleagues?

Simply copy or modify the examples below or create your own post. For Facebook you require certain sized images for them to appear in a feed (1,200 pixels wide and 628 pixels tall). Example images for you to use can be found in the resources section.

Here are some examples that you might want to use:

WYH HCP is launching a free-to-access Respiratory Quality Improvement Programme to provide healthcare professionals in WYH with the resources and education to improve patient outcomes. Coming Soon. For more information please visit wyh.icst.org.uk/register-interest

A free-to-access Respiratory Quality Improvement Programme is now available to support healthcare professionals in WYH in improving patient outcomes. For more information and to sign up please visit wyh.icst.org.uk/register-interest

If you, or your colleagues in WYH HCP, want to help shape patient outcomes then be sure to check out the new Respiratory Quality Improvement Programme. You will have access to the most up to date guidelines and resources, an education library with TV shows delivered by national and local experts, and assessments to test your knowledge

Want access to the latest advances in the screening, diagnosis and management of patients with respiratory conditions? The WYH respiratory quality improvement programme is launching in November and is a free tool to support healthcare professionals within WYH. Get access to an education library with TV shows delivered by national and local experts, assessments to test your knowledge and a whole host of helpful resources. For more information and to sign up please visit wyh.icst.org.uk